Dear Precious,

I want you to know that I found it a joy, as well as a pleasure to have interviewed you on September 8, 2008 for my Stupid Cancer Radio Show.

I found that you were a genuine person that has a true passion for others by writing their life stories as you did so well in your novel, "Memoirs of Cancer Survivors: AMERICA'S Relay for Life" about cancer survivors of all ages, race, and background.

I want to thank you for being my guest and I wish you luck in all your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Matthew Zachary
